Property of the Month

None

Mayor's Neighborhood Round Table

The meeting was comprised of a zoning update for O Street. It mostly removed small non-contiguous zoning.

Neighborhood Alliance will be advocating for policies in the Comprehensive Plan 2025 update.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Bylaws Committee

Approximately half way through first round of edits. The committee hopes to have a finished product by the next Annual Members' Meeting.

Will meet again January 15th.

Traffic Accidents on 22nd and Lake Streets

No Updates, waiting to hear back on study update from city.

NEW BUSINESS

Cleanup

- UNL Graduation, Primary and city election, Mother's day may impact scheduling.
 - April 26th is penciled in.
- In regards to the Tire committee Mo and Isaac attended, there was not much discussion on tires, the (first) committee meeting seemed to be pretty substanceless.
 - Proposal to take $5 per tire, and first 8 are free. More than 8 the hauler unloads and stacks.
- $100 for rental at star city, Mo will call.
- Capitol City Rolloffs - Reserve a month in advance or so, don't worry about it for now.
- Will be able to reuse most of the signs from last year.

Garage Sales

Will be first month of July, and info will go to Megan to go on map.

Marathon

Should be May 4th, banner and table will be set up outside Isaac's house. Used about 500 cups, and could have used 500 more.

Bryan West

Banner is going to Planning commission tomorrow (January 8th) and city council once it is approved. Roy has offered to give some support during his attendance at the meetings.
