- Credits
 - No deposits
- Debits
 - $12 check bounce fee
- Other Notes
 - David Workman submitted a $20 membership check at the meeting.

Property of the Month

- None until April, when it is nicer out.

Mayor's Neighborhood Roundtable

Mayor's Roundtable was cancelled, but the corner store district will be on the agenda next month, and Time Rinne will speak in the future about the DIY home gardening network.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Item: Annual Event Schedule and Cleanup Timeline

Discussion: Roy has sent messages to Mary Carroll but has not heard back, the website for the grant has not yet been updated.

- Uribe is reserved at the same rate.
- Star City will handle money, but some items cost additional money.
 - Advertise rates for CRTs and other items.
- Capitol City Refuse will like to be paid ahead of time (day before).
- Thomas can get in touch with the Woodshire HOA/neighborhood, they have their cleanup on the same day.

Item: Marathon Support

Discussion:

- Cody will pick up cups for Marathon.
- Isaac will leave table, hose, banners, out on back yard.
- Kelly will bring water jugs.

Item: Membership Drive

Discussion: Roy drafted letters to the fire station to see if we could get a fire engine in the lot, and invited the Mayor and City Council.

Judy offered to have a charcuterie board and wine after our membership drive.

Business Cards for the neighborhood

Lifting up little free pantries/libraries, churches, businesses, etc. Especially in an annual newsletter. (White Elm, Stuff Creative Reuse as well)

Item: Procedure Manual meeting

Discussion: March 19th is the next meeting.

Brain dump everything we need to know about the neighborhood, bank account, PO box, etc.

Item: Other Social Events

Discussion: Tour de Porch

Strong Neighborhood Grants (up to $2,500, and 2 $250 leadership stipends)

Spring/Fall Planting in Rudge or other places

Item: 27th Street Project Update

Discussion: A powerpoint from the meeting shared. 27th Street has “smart” lights, but some disagree on how smart they are, 27th and Sheridan, and left turn signals that don’t turn green.

NEW BUSINESS

Item: Eileen’s resignation, and Dave’s offer to volunteer for the board.

Discussion: Retired last August from the Department of Transportation. Dave was accepted as a board member

ADJOURNMENT: 8:05 P.M. Motion: Kelly Second: Martha
